

RALPH MARLOWE.

The Great Ohio Novel By Dr. James Hall Naylor.

Ralph Marlowe is not an ordinary novel, but is singularly free from exaggeration. Dr. Naylor's pen pictures are true to life, and in no instance are his characters overdrawn, for today we may find in southern Ohio, where the plot of the story is laid, just such people as the loquacious Jap. Tucker the stammering Tomp, the jovial Lon Orider, or the old country doctor.

"Ralph Marlowe" belongs to the class of rural-life novels, which at the present time are meeting with such favor throughout the entire country. The personnel of the book is distinct, life-like. In fact, so real do the characters become, and so strong a hold do they take upon our imagination and thought that we look upon them as actual acquaintances.

The great point of excellence in this story is the marvelous way in which the author has given us the true atmosphere of a county town—not the gawky, unbecoming, horse-play of the dialectic writers, but the real, homely, honest small-town air, with its lazy scent of apple blossoms in the summer, and the crisp frostiness of the winter days.—Baltimore American.

It Dazzles The World.

No discovery in medicine has ever created one quarter of the excitement that has been caused by Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption. Its severest tests have been on hopeless victims of consumption, pneumonia, hemorrhage, pleurisy and bronchitis, thousands of whom it has restored to perfect health. For coughs, colds, asthma, croup, hay fever, hoarseness and whooping cough it is the quickest, surest cure in the world. It is sold by Garrett & Gerig, who guarantee satisfaction or refund money. Large bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

Much Reading for Little Money.

The New York World has got the cost of printing down to a minimum. Its latest offer of its monthly newspaper-magazine is interesting if from no other cause than that it shows the same of "how much for how little."

The Monthly World is a 32 page magazine with colored cover. Its pages are about the size of the pages of the Ladies' Home Journal, and it is copiously illustrated in half tone. The illustrations are the result of the best artistic skill, aided by all the latest printing-press appliances, making a magazine unrivaled in the quality of its contents and its appearance.

Each issue contains stories of romance, love, adventure, travel; stories of fiction and fact; stories of things quaint and curious, gathered from all over the world; the results of scientific research, and editorial reviews. It numbers among its contributors the leading literary men and women of the day.

A feature each month is a full page portrait of the most famed man or woman of the moment in the public eye.

In collecting and preparing for publication the literary matter and art subjects for the Monthly World no expense is spared.

The New York World will send six numbers of this newspaper-magazine on receipt of fifteen cents in stamps. Address The World, Pulitzer building, New York.
